Intro: [C] [G] [Am] [F] [C] [G] [C]

[C]// In the [G] year of '39 assembled [Am] here the Volunteers
 In the [F] days when [C] lands were [G] few
 Here the [Am] ship sailed [C] out into the [F] blue and sunny morn
 The [Am] sweetest [G] sight ever [C] seen.

And the [G] night followed day, and the [E7] story tellers say
 That the [Am] score brave [Em] souls in-[F]side
 For [C] many a lonely day sailed a-[G]cross the milky seas
 Never looked [Am] back, never [G] feared, never [C] cried. [G]

[G]// Don't you [C] hear my call though you're [F] many years a-[C]way
 Don't you hear me calling [G] you
 Write your [Am] letters [Em] in the [F] sand
 [C] For the [F] day I [C] take your [Dm] hand
 In the [C] land that our [G] grandchildren [C] knew. [C]

[C] [G] [Am] [F] [C] [G] [C]

[C]// In the [G] year of '39 came a [Am] ship in from the blue
 The volun-[F]teers came [C] home that [G] day
 And they [Am] bring good [C] news of a [F] world so newly born
 Though their [Am] hearts so [G] heavily [C] weigh

[C]// For the [G] earth is old and grey, little [E7] darling we'll away
 But my [Am] love this [Em] cannot [F] be
 For so [C] many years have gone though I'm [G] older but a year
 Your mother's [Am] eyes from your [G] eyes cry to [C] me. [G]

[G]// Don't you [C] hear my call though you're [F] many years a-[C]way
 Don't you hear me calling [G] you
 Write your [Am] letters [Em] in the [F] sand
 [C] For the [F] day I [C] take your [Dm] hand
 In the [C] land that our [G] grandchildren [C] knew. [G]

[G]// Don't you [C] hear my call though you're [F] many years a-[C]way
 Don't you hear me calling [G] you
 All your [Am] letters [Em] in the [F] sand
 [C] cannot [F] heal me [C] like your [Dm] hand
 For my [Am!] life, still a-[G!]head. Pity [C!] Me. (2-3-4)
