At the [C] east end of town, at the [Am] foot of the hill,
There's a [G] chimney so tall, it's called [F] Belfast [C] Mill
But there's [C] no smoke at all coming [Am] out of the stack
For the [G] mill has shut down and its [F] never coming [C] back.
And the [C] only tune I hear is the [Am] sound of the wind,
As she [G] blows through the town weave and [F] spin, weave and [C]spin.

There's [C] no children playing in the [Am] dark narrow streets,
For the [G] mill has shut down it's so [F] quiet I can't [C] sleep.
And the [C] only tune I hear is the [Am] sound of the wind,
As she [G] blows through the town weave and [F] spin, weave and [C]spin.

[C] [Am] [G] [F] [C]

The [C] mill has shut down,'twas the [Am] only life I know,
Tell me [G] where will I go, tell me [F] where will I [C] go.
And the [C] only tune I hear is the [Am] sound of the wind,
As she [G] blows through the town weave and [F] spin, weave and [C]spin.

I'm [C] too old to work and I'm [Am]too young to die,
Tell me [G]where will I go, my [F]family and [C] I.
And the [C] only tune I hear is the [Am] sound of the wind,
As she [G] blows through the town weave and [F] spin, weave and [C]spin.

At the [C] east end of town, at the [Am] foot of the hill,
