

GALWAY BAY.

Arthur Colahan.

Key C in 4/4 time Strum Du Du Du Du played slowly.

Intro - C/ C/ (Played as Two Bars)

If [C] you ever go across the sea to [G] Ireland
Then [G7] maybe at the closing of your [C] day
You will [C7] sit and watch the moonrise over [Dm] Claddagh
And [G7] watch the sun go down on Galway [C] Bay [G7]

Just [C] to hear again the ripple of the [G] trout stream
The [G7] women in the meadows making [C] hay
Just to [C7] sit beside a turf fire in the [Dm] cabin
And [G7] watch the barefoot gossoons as they [C] play [G7]

For the [C] breezes blowing o'er the seas from [G] Ireland
Are [G7] perfumed by the heather as it [C] blows
And the [C7] women in the uplands diggin' [Dm] praties
Speak a [G7] language that the strangers do not [C] know [G7]

And [C] if there is going to be a life here [G] after
And [G7] somehow I am sure there's going to [C] be
I will [C7] ask my God to let me make my [Dm] heaven
In that [G7] dear land across the Irish [C] sea [G7]

If [C] you ever go across the sea to [G] Ireland
Then [G7] maybe at the closing of your [C] day
You will [C7] sit and watch the moonrise over [Dm] Claddagh
And [G7] watch the sun go down on Galway [C] Bay [G7]

And [G7] watch the sun go down on Galway [C] Bay
(Slow the last line with all chords single strum or arpeggio)
And [G7!] watch the sun go [G7!] down on [G7!] Galway [C!] Bay [C!]
(This last C Chord a big arpeggio)
