

Harvest Of The Moon

(Steeleye Span)

[C] [C] [C] [C]

All the [C] husbands and the wives We were [F] dancing for our lives
[C] All to the tune of Elsie [G] Marley
Instead of [C] gathering up our differences And [F] throwing them in the air
And [C] giving them to the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

And the [C] children they were watching Every [F] girl and every boy
As we [C] danced to the tune of Elsie [G] Marley
But they'd [C] heard another tune From the [F] harvest of the moon
That [C] rides upon the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

Then [C] Bridget, she declared That [F] she was not prepared
To watch us [C] dance to the tune of Elsie [G] Marley
She said I'll [C] sing you all a song And you'll [F] want to sing along
If you [C] listen to the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

And the [F] song that she sang Could be [C] heard for miles around
The [Am] air was full of harmony You [G] should have heard the sound
As we [C] gathered up our differences And [F] threw them in the air
And [C] gave them to the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

All the [C] husbands and the wives We were [F] dancing for our lives
[C] All to the tune of Elsie [G] Marley
Until we [C] gathered up our differences And [F] threw them in the air
And [C] gave them to the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

Then [C] all of us declared That [F] we were not prepared
To [C] dance our lives away with Elsie [G] Marley
For we'd [C] heard another tune From the [F] harvest of the moon
That [C] rides upon the wind that shakes the [G] bar-[C]ley

And the [F] song that we sang Could be [C] heard for miles around
The [Am] air was full of harmony You [G] should have heard the sound
As we [C] gathered up our differences And [F] threw them in the air

The [Am] air was full of harmony You [G] should have heard the sound
As we [C] gathered up our differences And [F] threw them in the air
And [C] gave them to the wind that shakes the [G] barl-[C]ey
