(Graham Nash)

Key: D

Time: 4/4

Artist: Crosby, Stills & Nash

Strum: D Du Du Du.

Intro: [D]² [G]² [D]² [A]²

[D]² You who are on the [G]² road
Must have a [D]² code that you can [A] live by [A7]
And [D]² so become your [G]² self
Because the [D]² past is just a [A]² goodbye

[D]² Teach your children [G]² well
Their father's [D]² hell did slowly [A] go by [A7]
And [D]² feed them on your [G]² dreams
The one they [D]² pick's the one you'll [A]² know by

[D]² Don't you ever ask them [G]² why
If they told you you would [D]² cry
So just look at them and [Bm]² sigh [G] [A!]
And know they [D]² love you [G]² [D]² [A] [A7]

And [D]² you of tender [G]² years
Can you hear, and do you care?
Can't know the [D]² fears that your elders [A] grew by [A7]
And can you see We must be free?
And so [D]² please, help them with your [G]² youth
To teach your children, what you believe in
They seek the [D]² truth, before they [A]² can die
Make a world that we can live in.

[D]² Teach your parents [G]² well
Their children's [D]² hell will slowly [A] go by [A7]
And [D]² feed them on your [G]² dreams
The one they [D]² pick's the one you'll [A]² know by

[D]² Don't you ever ask them [G]² why
If they told you, you would [D]² cry
So just look at them and [Bm]² sigh [G] [A!]
And know they [D]² love you [G]² [D]² [A] [D] [D!]
